

Information for spectators

Welcome to Uphöfener Berg!

To ensure that all spectators can enjoy a safe and exciting race weekend, please observe the following points:

Safety at the track and in the paddock

- Use only designated spectator paths and spectator areas. Do not cross barriers.
- In the paddock and at the pre-start area, you should always expect cars to be passing by or maneuvering.
- Strictly follow the instructions of marshals and security personnel.
- Do not enter marked danger zones.
- Never leave children unattended. Ear protection is recommended.

Parking & travel

- Please use only the designated parking areas.
- Emergency routes and access roads must be kept clear at all times.
- Follow the signs and on-site marshals.
- Carpooling is recommended.

Animals

- Dogs are only allowed on a leash.
- Loud engine noise can be very stressful for animals—please act responsibly.

Barbecues & open fires

- Open fires and barbecues are prohibited on the event grounds.
- Smoking is only permitted in designated areas and never in the forest or tall grass.

Alcohol & behaviour

- Considerate behaviour towards other visitors is expected.
- Entry may be denied to heavily intoxicated individuals.
- Violence, insults, or dangerous behavior will result in removal from the premises.

Environment & cleanliness

- Please dispose of trash in the designated containers.
- Natural and forested areas must be protected.
- No glass bottles in the spectator area.

Photography & video recording

- Photography for personal use is permitted.
- Drone flights are prohibited unless explicitly authorised.
- Professional recording is permitted only with accreditation.

Emergencies

- In an emergency, immediately notify marshals or emergency responders.
- Keep emergency routes clear at all times.
- First aid stations are signposted.
- In the event of an accident or a technical problem on the track , do not intervene. The emergency personnel on site will provide quick and professional assistance.

General information

- Always have your tickets ready.
- Weatherproof clothing and sturdy footwear are recommended.
- Entry is at your own risk.

We wish all spectators exciting motorsports and a safe visit to the Int. Hill Climb Race Osnabrück!